

Downstate Juniors Spring Break Camp

5th - 8th Grade Boys & Girls

Come join the fun this spring break!

Downstate Juniors Youth volleyball camp is designed to teach young athletes volleyball skills in a fun and low stress environment. Boys and girls in grades 5th-8th are invited to attend!

Athletes will participate in drills teaching basic volleyball techniques including serving, passing, hitting, and much more.

Camp Lead Coaches

Gold's Gym: Joe Felipe has been coaching volleyball for over 23 years and led multiple teams to various league and state titles. Joe is the head coach of our 14 Cobras National team and lead instructor for the AYA-North . Joe has a passion for volleyball youth development and continues to pursue avenues to help develop youth volleyball in our area.

Downstate Athletic Center & Somers Sports Arena: Massi Angooti & Saeede Salehipour Head up our 14U Red National Team and also coach within our new Aspire Youth Academy. They bring a ton of technical knowledge while keeping the environment fun yet competitive.

These Lead Coaches bring a high level of knowledge and skill development techniques to share with all campers!
